- 10.2 The directors are expected to demonstrate utmost integrity and conduct themselves with high standard behaviour based on the following fundamental principles:-

BIMB INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT BERHAD

BOARD CHARTER

10.2.1 Duty to Avoid Conflict of Interest

A director must not allow himself/herself to get into a position where there is a conflict between his/her duty to BIMB Invest and his/her own interest. Under section 219 and 221 of the Companies Act 2016, director has a duty to disclose his/her interest in material transaction or material arrangement. If the material transaction or material arrangement is being deliberated during the Board meeting, the director concerned must make the disclosure before the commencement of the deliberation and he/she must not be present during such deliberation.

10.2.2 Duty to Avoid Misuse of Position

Directors must not use BIMB Invest's name or facilities for personal advantage in political, investment or retail purchasing transactions, or in similar types of activities. The directors and their relatives must not use their connection with BIMB Invest to borrow from or become indebted to customers or prospective customers. In addition, the directors must not use BIMB Invest's facilities and influence for any speculation activities, whether acting personally or on behalf of friends and relatives. The directors should also not engage in "back-scratching" exercise with staff and directors of other financial institutions to provide mutually beneficial transactions in return of similar facilities.

10.2.3 Duty of Confidentiality and Prevent Misuse of Information

All directors are required to respect the confidentiality of sensitive information held by BIMB Invest. A director is prohibited from making improper use of information obtained in the course of performing his/her duties for his/her gain or advantage. In addition, a director cannot disclose information relating to the business and affairs of BIMB Invest or that he/she obtains in the course of performance of duties and functions, as well as information about customers of BIMB Invest. All confidential information remains confidential even when they are no longer on the Board and it cannot be exploited or improperly used.

10.2.4 Integrity of Records and Transactions

Directors should ensure that all accounting records and reports must be complete and accurate. Directors should never make entries or allow entries to be made for any account, record or document of BIMB Invest that are false or would obscure the true nature of the transactions, as well as to mislead the true authorization limits or approval by the relevant authority of such transactions.

BOARD CHARTER

10.2.5 Fair and Equitable Treatment

Directors must ensure that all business dealings of BIMB Invest with current and potential customers, with the employees and with all those who may have cause to rely upon BIMB Invest to be conducted fairly and equitably. Directors must not be influenced by friendship or association, either in meeting a customer's requirements or in recommending that they be met. Such decisions must be made on a strictly arms-length business basis.

10.2.6 Operational Issues

The Board's role is to consider and approve strategies, plans and policies for BIMB Invest and to monitor and review the Management's performance. It is the role of the Management to recommend and implement those plans and strategies. The directors should avoid interfering in the day to day running of BIMB Invest.

The Board is to hold the Management to account more effectively and to make decisions on BIMB Invest's priorities.

10.2.7 Responsibility for Board Decisions

The directors must be capable of providing constructive challenge. They are also expected to share responsibility for decisions taken by the Board as a whole. If any of the directors fundamentally disagree with the decision taken by the Board, they have the option of recording their disagreement in the minutes. However ultimately, they must accept and support the collective decision of the Board.

10.2.8 Loyalty to BIMB Invest and the Board

All directors must be loyal to BIMB Invest, the Board and fellow directors on the Board, and be fully committed to all Board-related activities. A director is prohibited from doing, saying or publishing anything that may be detrimental to BIMB Invest's interest. A director should never publicly criticise BIMB Invest or fellow directors, attempt to undermine the Board's decision or distance himself from the other directors outside of the Boardroom. If a director has specific concerns about the manner in which BIMB Invest is being run, these concerns should be raised with the Chairman and Management or during Board meetings.

10.2.9 Speaking in Public and Usage of Social Media

The CEO is the designated spokesperson who may issue statement or make comments regarding BIMB Invest. If any director is asked to comment publicly, the director is required to decline and refer the question to the CEO.

However, on case to case basis, the Board may also appoint the Chairman of the Board or such other director to be the spokesperson for BIMB Invest.

In addition, all directors are required to be mindful when using social media such as, but are not limited to Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Blogs, YouTube, Google+, LinkedIn, WhatsApp and Telegram, that they do not disclose confidential information about BIMB Invest's business or its customers. The directors are prohibited from posting and making commentaries that would adversely affect the image and reputation of BIMB Invest. If such comments are made in the director's personal capacity, the said director must refrain from identifying himself as BIMB Invest's director.

SECTION 11: CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

11.1 Conflict of interest is a set of circumstances that creates a risk that professional judgment or actions regarding the director's primary obligation to act in the best interest of the company will be unduly influenced by the interest to do favours for family and friends either for financial gain or such other motives that will be beneficial to the directors or person connected to the directors.

11.2 Circumstances that may constitute or may give rise to conflicts of interests situation include but not limited to the following:-

11.2.1 a director or person connected to him/her will or might profit from the proposed transaction to be entered by BIMB Invest;

11.2.2 a director or person connected to him/her proposing to contract personally with BIMB Invest;

11.2.3 a director or person connected to him/her sit on the Board of direct competitor, the customer, potential customers or suppliers of BIMB Invest;

11.2.4 a director or person connected to him/her being the majority shareholder of BIMB Invest;

11.2.5 a director or person connected to him/her being the potential customer, supplier or advisor/consultant to BIMB Invest; and

- 11.2.6 a director or person connected to him/her accepting costly entertainment or gifts from customers, potential customers or suppliers. However, directors may accept token gifts with no commercial value during the festive seasons if such act will not put the director in compromising position.
- 11.3 Each director is required to declare upon his/her appointment and subsequently upon come to his/her knowledge of any conflict of interest, a notification pursuant to sections 219, 221 of the Companies Act 2016. The Corporate Secretarial Department shall keep record of the said declaration.
- 11.4 In the event where there may be a conflict of interest, the interested director shall declare at the beginning of the Board meeting the facts and nature of the conflict and to leave the meeting room and abstain from participating in discussions and decisions on the matters directly involving the said director. In circumstances where a director is unsure as to whether or not a conflict of interest exists or is material, he/she should discuss the matter with the Chairman prior to the meeting.

Where a conflict of interest exists and the Board Member does not declare his or her interest and/or offer to withdraw, the Chairman should, if he is aware, take appropriate action to ensure that the Board (and the Board Member concerned) is not compromised.

The fundamental principle is that no one should use, or give the appearance of using, their public position to further their private interests. This is an area of particular importance as it receives considerable media attention and even innocent acts could be misinterpreted.

- 11.5 In the event of any non-compliance with the above conflict of interest requirement, the Board shall take or impose such actions as it considers appropriate in the best interest of the Company.

SECTION 12: WHISTLE BLOWING POLICY

- 12.1 BIMB Invest has established its Whistle Blowing Policy which sets out avenues for immediate reporting and/or disclosing of any wrong doings, malpractices or irregularities, committed by employees and/or external parties against BIMB Invest's interest. The policy protects the confidentiality of the matters raised and the identity of the whistleblower.
- 12.2 The Chairman of the Board Audit and Risk Committee who is an independent director of BIMB Invest is the designated non-executive director responsible for the effective implementation of the policy.
